OFF the wall examines the notion of the open artwork, where everyday elements are incorporated, their function transfigured, and their meaning exploded into several interpretations. The works selected for this exhibition, which will be held at Sir J J School of Art, Mumbai, from the 27th to the 30th of November, 2014, touch upon that uncomfortable space, where art can no longer be just an autonomous and rarefied object. Rather, the open work contaminates over time with new connotations, engaging in a constant dialogue with the viewer and the public. Through this exchange, artistic practice becomes a tool for critique and an open channel between the inside of art and the outside of the world.

This event is curated by ArtOxygen, it is produced by Goodhomes India Magazine in collaboration with Sir JJ School of Art as part of the third edition of Goodhomes for Art Week 2014, and it is promoted by Hafele.
