Research

-- In November ‘17, I was on a one month research trip to Thailand, Cambodia and Vietnam on the subject of War and Conflict (past and present). It was an exhausting experience and along the way I also conducted Artist Talks, Screenings and Workshops (details of which I will send in my next email)

-- In September '17, I was on a two week research trip to Ladakh in the North of India where I was researching on the porters who assist the Indian soldiers and officers posted on the Siachen Glacier. It is part of my on-going project and I also visited Srinagar in Jammu & Kashmir for additional research.
